Funeral Tuesday.

The funeral of Mr. Hamilton will be held from the residence, 415 Topeka avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Services will also be held under the auspices of the Masonic lodge at Fort Madison, where his brother, W. S. Hamilton, is a member. J. D. M. Hamilton joined the Masonic fraternity at Fort Madison. At the time of his death he was a member of Siloam lodge, Topeka. Following the services here, the body, accompanied by the members of the family, will be taken to Fort Madison on Santa Fe train No. 6. The burial will take place in Fort Madison.

Hale Hamilton, the well known actor, who has been playing in Cleveland, left that city Sunday and will arrive in Topeka at 11 o'clock tonight to attend his father's funeral.

The flag on the staff of the general office building is at half mast and the building is appropriately draped.

"The death of Mr. Hamilton was a great shock to his fellow-officials in the Santa Fe office building," a Santa Fe man said this morning. "A man of portly build and full of life, Mr. Hamilton appeared to be in the best of health. Nobody ever thought of him as nearing the end of his earthly career. Pleasant and agreeable in the transaction of business, always on hand to do his share of any duty to be perfomed, full of sympathy for those in trouble, yet a good laughter, and ready to give or take a joke, Mr. Hamilton endeared himself to his associates and, on account of the fatherly interest he took in younger men, he was familiarly known in the office building as 'Pop' Hamilton."

Pall Bearers.

The active pallbearers will be selected rom Mr. Hamilton's staff of claim adfrom Mr. Hamilton's staff of claim adjusters. The honorary pallbearers will be J. C. Burnett, E. H. Bunnell, E. L. As the advocate of "Safety First."
Mr. Hamilton was perhaps best known. With the safety department of the system, he created the "Get the Safety Habit" movement to perfection. He brought that campaign out of its infancy until now it is an important factor in the management of the road.

Mr. Hamilton was a member of Siloam lodge, A. F. A. M., the Country club, the Topeka club, the Elks club and the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, a national college Greek letter order. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Hale Hamilton, of New York, the well known actor, and John Hamilton, of Topeka; two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Sarah Cook, of Omaha; Mrs. Elizabeth Harrison, of Columbus; W. S. Hamilton, of Fort Madison, J. M. Hamilton, of Salt Lake City, and Isalah Hale, half brother.

The Santa Fe sent a private car to Kansas City Sunday afternoon to bring Mr. Hamilton's body to Topeka. It was taken to the family home. 415 Topeks avenue.

Trieste Promises Resistance.

From Trieste, the principal Austrian seaport on the Adriatic sea, concerning whose attitude in case of an attack there has been much speculation, came a statement today from the governor that in case of being attacked he would not evacuate the city.

"Trieste," he said, "will resist. The Anglo-French fiset, however, before attacking Trieste, must deal with the Austrian fiset at Pola."

Throughout the British Isles enlistment continues unabated, and a noteworthy feature is the high standard of the recruits. Students and young professional men are conspicuous in every squad upon the London streets.
